

VENUE	12:00	12:30	1:00	1:30	2:00	2:30	3:00	3:30	4:00	4:30	5:00	5:30	6:00	6:30	7:00	7:30	8:00	8:30
Lucianna's Pastries	Listen to live French and Celtic music played on a hammered dulcimer, and learn French phrases
Deliverance Temple			Nations of the World educational sessions				Nations of the World Dining Event (cost: $2 for kids / $15 for adults)
Hayner Library	Hayner Library Downtown will feature a display of books and other resources on the countries and cultures highlighted during "Small Town - Big World" And if you would like additional resources, the Hayner staff is happy to assist you in your research anytime
Grassroots Grocery	Pick up a free souvenir!		Underground Railroad (Four 15-minute talks)		Pick up a free souvenir! Take a look at foreign currency coins from all over the globe and then pick your favorite to take home.
Jacoby Arts Center			Principia Rugby Team - meet their star players from all over the world, watch scrimmages and learn about this internationally popular sport				The Council on American-Islamic Relations will provide the opportunity to "Meet a Muslim" while you enjoy ethnic finger foods and see your name written in Arabic, plus check out a "hijab selfie" station and a henna station
	Enjoy our pork belly ramen, a "Taste of Asia" appetizer sampler (Japanese edamame, Vietnamese fresh spring roll, Korean chicken wings), and Asia-inspired beverage specials
Old Bakery Beer Co.			Capoeira - Brazilian dance/martial art		Filipino Dancing & Traditional clothing of the Philippines		Kendo - Japanese Samurai swordsmanship and from 2-5pm make some Japanese inspired art - Gyotaku fish printing
It's Raining Zen at Mineral Springs Mall									Sit around a 12' teepee and listen to Native American history and stories told by Coyote Chris Sutton, member of the Red Cedar Circle of SW IL. Watch Grant Zeidler hand stretch a drum skin, or join in the drum circle. Learn about medicine pouches with stones and herbs and make one to take home for a small fee. See Zen's real life animal totem, Cochise, a mighty paint horse. First 20 children under 10 receive a free dreamcatcher.
River Bend Yoga					Breath and mind workshop	Indian Classical Dance	(2-4pm) Photo booth with Indian attire, an open discussion on religion in daily Indian life, & sari bags for purchase.		Free yoga classes at 4:15, 5:15 & 6:15
Little Mexico									Traditional Mexican song & dance	Sugar skull face painting, make a Mexican Folk Art Project – Tin Stamping, learn about the Ancient Mayan culture of Mexico & Guatemala, see examples of traditional clothing and take home a worry doll
	Enjoy our buffet of German food, with brats, sauerkraut, beer pretzels, sauerbraten, and spatzle. Paulaner Hefeweisen and Pilsner Urquell (Czech) on tap!
Elijah P's			Pick up an authentic Belgian waffle at Flights Coffee & Waffle bar - look for the restored 60's camper in the parking lot that's been transformed into an awesome food truck. (Open until at least 6pm)						Oktoberfest favorite "Joe Polach and the St Louis Express Band" specializes in ethnic music such as polkas and waltzes, but also plays a variety of American country and rock n roll. The Bridge newspaper of Lewis & Clark Community College will have an info table about their "L&C has Heart" project.										